

COG welcomes new procurement manager

TORONTO -- In keeping with its commitment to continuously strengthen its business efficiency processes, COG has hired a new strategic sourcing and procurement program manager effective Dec. 2, 2019.

Dan Prentice will join the Corporate Services and Finance team reporting directly to John Moore, Director of Corporate Services and CFO.

Dan has over 17 years of procurement and project co-ordination experience in the nuclear industry and has a Project Management Association of Canada certification in purchasing. He has previously worked in the purchasing organizations of Atomic Energy of Canada Limited, Candu Energy and the Canatom Power Group. In his most recent role, Dan oversaw the procurement functions for Canatom (an SNC-Lavalin/Aecon joint venture) related to the Ontario Power Generation Darlington Refurbishment Project.

Initially, Dan's work will be focussed on COG's on-going work to standardize and strengthen business efficiency processes related to procurement and vendor management. He will also assist in the migration of COG's procurement processes into Changepoint.

Functions related to procurement, currently being performed by Ivan Petirs, will continue unchanged.
