

Relive the experience

#CNA2018 conference videos are now online

The annual Canadian Nuclear Association Conference had record attendance as participants gathered from all parts of the industry, for #CNA2018, Feb. 21-23 in Ottawa, Ont.

To re-live the action (or in case you missed it), use the link below to view videos of the main stage events.

Videos include talks from:

- Dr. John Barrett, President and CEO, Canadian Nuclear Association;
- Glenn Jager, EVP and Chief Nuclear Officer, Ontario Power Generation;
- MP Kim Rudd, Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister of Natural Resources Canada;
- Michael Shellenberger, Founder and President, Environmental Progress;
- Maria Korsnick, President and CEO, Nuclear Energy Institute;
- Michael Binder, President and CEO, Canadian Nuclear Safety Commission; and
- The Honourable Glenn Thibeault, Ontario Minister of Energy.

There were also several panel discussions about innovation, small modular reactors, nuclear as part of a clean energy mix and more. COG's own Director of Nuclear Safety and Environmental Affairs, Rachna Clavero, was part of the Next Generation: Diversity panel. Click here to watch the panel.

CNA2019 will be held Feb. 27 to March 1, 2019 at the Ottawa Westin Hotel.
